

WRITE-IN CANDIDATE

Pursuant to Code Section 2-8-113(c) of the Tennessee Election Laws, any person attempting to be elected by write-in ballots in the AUGUST 6, 2026 State Primary Election or County General Election shall complete a notice in the Election Commission office requesting such person's name be counted in the county no later than 50 days before the election, which is JUNE 17th by 12:00 NOON. Such person shall have only votes counted where such notice was completed and timely filed. The Election Commission will provide this form.

Individuals who lost their primary nomination may not file a write-in certification to have their votes counted in the General Election.
